Director

Coach Paul Wholey

Framingham State University Men's Basketball Coach

Paul Wholey is entering his 2nd season at FSU after qualifying for the MASCAC playoffs in his 1st year.

Coach Wholey was inducted into the New England AAU Hall of Fame in 2011 and in 2009 was in the 1st class of inductees for the Hull High School Hall of Fame. Coach has 28 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and high school level. His high school teams have qualified for the MIAA tournament 14 times, undefeated in 96/97. Coach Wholey has guided 6 teams to Div I AAU National Championships, with 2 state Titles and 1 New England Title, as well as finishing 12th and 16th in the country.

As a player at the University of Maine – Orono he was selected 'All-New England', 'All Yankee Conference', and 'All Maine', as well as leading Div I in scoring in 1976. He is still Hull High's All Time leading scorer with 1410 Points.

Coach Wholey has been directing the "POPS" program for the past 19 years, running quality basketball programs for players of all ages and skill levels.

POPS offers Individual Lessons Available to boys and girls of all ages. Designed to improve skills and teach players how to workout on their own. By appointment – Contact Coach Wholey via email: nwholey@popsbasketball.com or phone: 781-837-6005

"INTENSITY" WEEK

11TH Annual

A serious intensive conditioning and instructional week designed for the Varsity and Junior Varsity player looking to be thoroughly prepared for their upcoming season. Many past participants credit "INTENSITY" week with helping them earn a spot on a varsity squad, earning a starting position or an all-star selection. Past teams have gone on to win league championships as well as state championships.

Emphasis will be on fundamentals, individual instruction, conditioning and team concepts. This program provides the serious player with a tremendous edge immediately before their high school season begins.

Limited to 24 players
